

OSHA mandates that life-threatening injuries must be treatable within 3-4 minutes or the employer is liable.

OSHA 1910.151; ANSI Z308.1-2021; OSHA LETTERS

The consequences of non-compliance are devastating.

27

U.S. workers / day suffer amputations or hospitalizations (5)

40%

of all trauma deaths are due to massive bleeding (6)

$165,000

OSHA fine for improper kits per incident (9)

Deaths after workplace injury from blood loss are common, but preventable

Industry	Fatalities (2023)	Causes
Construction	1075	"Struck-by", impalement, tool trauma (1)
Manufacturing	930	Forklifts, caught-between, crushed limbs (2)
Forestry & Logging	448	Chainsaw, lacerations, remote trauma (4)
Transport & Warehousing	391	Machine entrapments, amputations (3)

Job sites nationwide are protecting their teams with AutoTQ.

- Audio Instructions
- Two-Year Battery Life
- One-Button Application
- ANSI Z308.1-2021 Compliant
- Unlimited Training Accessible
- 92% first-time-user success rate (11)

Scan to Learn More

TheAutoTQ.com/About-AutoTQ

References

1. BLS. (2024). Census of Fatal Occupational Injuries.
2. National Safety Council. (2023). Forklift Injury Report.
3. OSHA Severe Injury Reports. (2023). Manufacturing sector data.
4. BLS. (2024). Forestry fatality rates.
5. Economic Policy Institute. (2024). Worker Amputation Report.
6. Goolsby, C. et al. (2016). Disaster Med Public Health Prep, 10(2), 274–280.
7. Friberg, M. et al. (2021). Human Factors, 65(3), 495–507.
8. Oragui, E. et al. (2010). HAND, 6(2), 165–173.
9. OSHA Penalty Structure. (2025). Updated for inflation.
10. AutoTQ Human Occlusion Study. (2024). theautotq.com/occlusion

